JOFTES TO SPEAK TO CAPE JEWRY

CAPE TOWN: Mr. Saul E. Jofes, Secretary to the B'nai B'rith International of Washington, D.C., will have his only public meeting in the Cape Peninsula on Thursday, 4th August at the Rondebosch Communal Hall, Ave de Mist, at 8 p.m. All are welcome!

Mr. Jofes, who recently visited 18 Jewish centres throughout the world will speak on "Danger Signs for World Jewry" and will stress the role and activities of International B'nai B'rith in combating anti-Semitism. His visit to Cape town has aroused much interest and the meeting in Rondebosch because of the topicality of the subject, should be well attended.
